

MASSACRE OF CHRISTIANS IN CILICIA IS FEARED

ADANA, June 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Consternation prevails among the Christians in Cilicia, south-east Asia Minor, as the result of the 20 day massacre between the French and the Turkish nationalists, which included no clause for the protection of the Armenians, who it is declared, were told by the French that they must prepare for themselves. The massacre has been broken in numerous places by June 9 and the greatest confusion exists. Europeans fearing that it may result in the death of many Christians.

A message from Hadjin, dated May 25, indicates that the American workers there surrendered their compounds to the Turks two months previously and that they have been living under the rule of the nationalists, without the right of communicating with the outside world. The Americans there are Miss Edith Cold, of Cleveland; Miss Alice Clark, of Franklin, Ill.; and Miss Mary Super, of Nashville, Tenn.

The fate of the Armenian orphans at Hadjin is not known, although there are reports among the Turks that the boys were killed and the girls taken to Caesarea (Kaisariyah).

A Constantinople despatch on May 6, told of efforts being made by Miss Cold through a compromise between the Turks and the Armenians to save the Armenian orphans in her charge at Hadjin. It was said, however, that her attempt to bring about a reconciliation between the armed forces of the Armenians and the nationalists had been fruitless.

The May 25 message said, the Armenians at Hadjin expected to be able to hold out for 15 days from that date. Under the French-Turkish armistice the French agreed to evacuate 25,000 and 10,000 within ten days. It contained no provision however, concerning Hadjin, which has suffered on less than 25 attacks in the last two months.

Belonging to the number of 7,000 who were removed from Sivas, were forced to leave all their possessions. The Armenians express belief that the massacre is a prelude to a complete evacuation of the district by the French, leaving them at the mercy of the nationalists who are charged because they allege the French induced the Armenians to fight.

Since President Wilson's acceptance of the task of fixing the Armenian boundaries, the nationalists, according to reports from the interior, are apparently less kindly disposed toward the Armenians and are affecting fewer facilities for communication with the rebel workers.

"WEALTHY MEN'S ATTEMPT TO BUY PRESIDENCY CAUSE OF WOOD'S DEFEAT"—BUTLER

NEW YORK, June 15.—Charges that a "money group of stock gamblers, oil and mining promoters, millionaires and other like persons" swayed the election of General Wood and with reckless audacity started out to buy for him the presidential nomination, were made in a statement given out here by Nicholas Murray Butler, a successful candidate for the Republican nomination.

"It was the cause of genuine sorrow to me as to many others of General Wood's personal friends," he said, "to see him put in this unhappy position. There was nothing to do in order to save the Republican party, but to defeat the band of men that were behind him with their bank accounts and their great financial influence. This meant that we had to defeat General Wood himself."

Not General's Fault

"The forces that were defeated in their insidious attempt to buy the nomination," he added, "represent all that is worst in American business and American political life. It is really too bad that they hit upon General Wood as their choice. They should have found someone to support for whom the country has less respect and less regard."

"The chief task of the convention," the statement said, "was to prevent the sale of presidential nominations at auction to the highest bidder. Had this not been done, the party faced not only certain defeat but crushing dishonor. The sixty-eight New York delegates who voted for me on the first ballot were the chief factor in stopping the Hindenburg drive to overwhelm the convention by the power of unlimited money and by strong arm methods in preferential primaries."

CINCINNATI, O., June 15.—Colonel William Cooper Proctor, manager of General Wood's campaign, announced today that he had received a telegram from General Wood's personal friend, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, saying that his statement given out yesterday relative to General Wood's support was wholly false and was given out with malicious disregard for the truth.

The telegram as given out by Colonel Proctor reads:

"Statements in the morning papers credited to you, relative to General Wood's support, wholly false, and made with malicious disregard for the truth."

Dr. Butler, in his statement, is quoted as saying that stock gamblers, oil and mining promoters, millionaires and other like persons sought to buy for General Wood the presidential nomination.

"The insidious influence, the same element that has prevented a ratification of the peace treaty was responsible for General Wood's failure to obtain the nomination," said Colonel Proctor.

PENSACOLA, Fla., June 15.—The United States public health service and Louisiana state health authorities joined today with Florida health agents in an investigation of the death here a few days ago of Peter Giardina, believed to have been a bubonic plague victim. Tests made yesterday with guinea pigs inoculated from Giardina's body were said by local medical authorities to strengthen the belief that it was a genuine case of bubonic plague.

IMPORTANT RESOLUTIONS UP BEFORE MEMBERS OF FEDERATION OF LABOR

MONTREAL, June 15.—The American Federation of Labor, in annual convention here today, adopted a resolution demanding repeal of the compulsory arbitration sections of the Esch-Cummings transportation act of 1920. The executive council was instructed to take steps to bring about this action.

Introduction of military training in schools was condemned by the convention and the executive council was directed to oppose any attempt to establish compulsory military service as "unnecessary, undesirable and unjust."

MONTREAL, June 15.—The American Federation of Labor at today's session of its annual convention pledged support to striking longshoremen at the Atlantic and Gulf coasts in their fight for "recognition" and their opposition to "the policy of the open shop."

The convention was thrown into a tumult when Thomas Swanney, of Chicago, charged that the committee had a "motivation" in holding back the last news of the convention by failing to report and would "probably attempt to ram things down the throat of the delegates the last day."

When Samuel Gompers, federation president, had restored order he replied to the charges by declaring that the attempt to "impugn the integrity

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION
THRU HARDING'S SELECTION

COLUMBUS, O., June 15.—Now that an Oldham has been chosen the standard bearer of the Republican party, Ohio Democrats are redoubting their efforts to obtain another honor for the Buckeye state by having Governor James M. Cox selected by the San Francisco convention as the one to carry the standard for their party.

No sooner had Senator Harding's nomination been assured than former Governor James E. Campbell, an Ohio delegate at large to the Democratic national convention, began preparations of a circular letter to all Democratic delegates setting forth by Governor Cox should be nominated at the San Francisco convention.

Governor James M. Cox can carry Ohio. What other candidate can match this certainly with even a probability, the letter declares.

Ohio Democrats are convinced that the nomination of Senator Harding by the Republicans has placed Governor Cox in a strategic position from which it will be hard for any other candidate to dislodge him.

Cox Holds Whip Hand At Democratic Convention Thru Harding's Selection

COLUMBUS, O., June 15.—Now that an Oldham has been chosen the standard bearer of the Republican party, Ohio Democrats are redoubting their efforts to obtain another honor for the Buckeye state by having Governor James M. Cox selected by the San Francisco convention as the one to carry the standard for their party.

No sooner had Senator Harding's nomination been assured than former Governor James E. Campbell, an Ohio delegate at large to the Democratic national convention, began preparations of a circular letter to all Democratic delegates setting forth by Governor Cox should be nominated at the San Francisco convention.

Governor James M. Cox can carry Ohio. What other candidate can match this certainly with even a probability, the letter declares.

Ohio Democrats are convinced that the nomination of Senator Harding by the Republicans has placed Governor Cox in a strategic position from which it will be hard for any other candidate to dislodge him.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Headquarters for two of the aspirants to the Democratic nomination for President at the national convention which legies June 28, were opened here yesterday. Those for whom offices were opened were United States Senator Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma, and Attorney-General A. Mitchell Palmer. The headquarters of Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio, will be opened here today with the expected arrival of E. H. Moore, national committeeman of Ohio, who has charge of the governor's pre-convention campaign.

Bridgford College, recently chosen a delegate from the District of Columbia, is being mentioned by leaders here for the permanent chairmanship of the convention. United States Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia, is being discussed in connection with the chairmanship of the committee on resolutions. Tentative plans call for the opening of the convention by J. Bruce Kremer, vice-chairman of the national committee, who will introduce House S. Cummings, chairman of the committee, as temporary chairman of the convention, who will make the keynote speech.

E. G. Hoffman, secretary of the national committee, arrived today. With him R. Marshall, treasurer of the committee, is scheduled to arrive today.

The delegates then by an overwhelming vote defeated a motion to appoint a committee to get a report on the activities of the various committees now in charge of the important proposals before the convention. The delegates then took a brief adjournment.

MONTREAL, June 15.—Resolutions demanding government ownership and democratic control of railroads, lifting of the blockade against Russia, recognition of the Russian Soviet government, release of "political prisoners," and reclassification of government civil service employees, were up for discussion today before the convention of the American Federation of Labor. The committee on resolutions announced that it would complete its reports on these proposals before the session closed.

The railroad resolution, supported by the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, and a number of other organizations, demands repeal of the transportation act of 1920, and enactment of legislation providing for "government ownership and democratic operation of the railroads system and necessary inland waterways."

This is necessary, the resolution declares, in order to provide "more adequate and cheaper transportation and to eliminate the sinister influence of railroad corporations from our national life."

Debate on the railroad question is expected to include discussion of the Plumb plan for railroad nationalization.

The resolutions committee announced that hearings were still being held on the Irish question, which probably will be reported tomorrow. The executive council committee also will be ready to report tomorrow on the major problems before the federation.

The special committee of the national committee for organizing Irish and steel workers announced today that it had presented a request to the executive council to bring the American Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers back into the steel industry organizing movement. The council now has the matter under consideration. James G. Boney, now in charge of the campaign, has offered his resignation, but the committee has refused to consider it at this time.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 15.—William Harrison (Jack Dempsey), world's heavyweight champion, was found not guilty on a selective draft evasion indictment by a jury in the United States district court here today.

Both sides waived final argument in the trial today and immediately thereafter Judge M. T. Dooley began instructing the jury. The defense, contrary to its announcement, failed to put on two concluding witnesses.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Police Inspector Homelock Henry, of the tenement district, found guilty of perjury last Friday in connection with New York's vice war, today was sentenced to two to five years in state prison at hard labor.

Henry was indicted by the extra-judicial grand jury for perjury after it had investigated his statements at a hearing that Assistant District Attorney James E. Smith, conducting New York's vice crusade, had tried to enter a gambling partnership with him several years ago.

Harding Not To Retire From The Senate

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.—Warren G. Harding, the Republican presidential nominee, does not intend to retire from the United States senate until his term of office expires on March 1.

"There is no possibility of that," Senator Harding declared today when asked whether he would resign from the senate immediately. "I do not intend to resign, but intend to serve my term out. Why shouldn't I?"

"I do, however, intend to withdraw my petition filed last week in Columbus, giving notice that I would be a candidate for reelection to the senate. That will be done this week."

Senator Harding's friends explained today that for him to retire from the senate would endanger the narrow margin of control held by the Republicans there as his retirement would enable Governor Cox, of Ohio, to appoint a Democrat in his place. They also said that should the senator be elected president in November he could continue to serve in the senate as he would not be inaugurated until his term as senator expired on March 1.

The senator was at his office early today waiting until some pending senate business. His only fixed engagement was with Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, who called, it was understood, to discuss matters pertaining to public life in connection with the coming campaign.

"Only matters pertaining to the campaign were discussed with Senator Harding," said Mr. Shaw, after an hour's conference with the nominee. "The candidate is first business with me. We did not discuss politics."

There was little statement today in the stream of congratulatory messages reaching Senator Harding's office. The messages today included one from Henry Lane Wilson, former ambassador to Mexico, assuring the Ohio Senator of his support, and from Fred Brown, Grand Chancellor, Knights of Pythias of Ohio.

Nitro, W. Va.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., June 15.—Sixty-five acres at Nitro, W. Va., including manufacturing plants and dwelling houses have been purchased from the Charleston Industrial Corporation by the Miller Rubber Company, of Akron, Ohio, manufacturers of automobile tires.

The newly acquired property of the rubber company is a sector of the city of Nitro, which was during the war constructed and used by the war department for the manufacture of powder. The purchasers decline to make public plans for the future development of their property.

Nitro was purchased by the Charleston Industrial Corporation for the sum of approximately eight million dollars.

Under the strike order operators on ships are instructed to cease work when their voyages end and not to sign for further trips.

This is the first general strike of its kind and according to union men today, it may take on international aspects. The Akron headquarters on the Strand and the docks will be picketed by the striking organization, it was stated.

Wood, president of these corporations, who were charged with profiteering in the sale of bolts of cloth. The writ was allowed after filing of an order by Federal Judge Mack, quashing the indictments on the ground that cloth was not wearing apparel. The writ, therefore, carries the case direct to the highest court in the land.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Benjamin C. The Republican platform, Marsh said, "recognizes several existing evils in farming conditions, but does not pledge action to justify them."

"The platform naturally endorses the transportation act and legislation to turn the people's ships over to the British and American shipping interests," Marsh added. "These two measures jointly will spell financial loss and perhaps disaster for hundreds of thousands of farmers."

yourself you might do it this way: Get a sheet of tin foil of required size and pour over it three drops of quick silver for each square foot of foil. Then rub the foil with buckskin until it becomes brilliant. Lay a sheet of paper over the foil, covering it completely, and place upon the paper a slab of marble or block of wood with flat, smooth surface. Allow to stand for three or four hours to "set" and then remove the weight. If the work has been carefully done the foil will adhere closely to the glass. Usually, however, it is cheaper and more satisfactory to buy a new mirror than to attempt to restore one.

St. John's Lutheran church at Powhatan, O., was the scene of a quiet but impressive wedding Thursday, June 10, at 2 p. m., when Miss Martha Staker became the bride of Mr. Ora C. Means.

The ceremony was performed by Mr. N. Rasmussen pastor of the church, using the double ring ceremony of the Lutheran church.

An appropriate wedding march, played by Miss Emma Staker, cousin of the bride, announced the approach of the bridal party. The little flower girl, Miss Nellie Means, niece of the groom, and the little ring-bearer, Miss Marjorie Staker, niece of the bride, led the procession. is readiness for the approaching hour. The effect of the marriage of Miss Edna Eleanor Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Oving Thompson to Mr. J. Howard Gage at Chillicothe, the church of Holy Redeemer church rang out the glad tidings, while within the sanctuary and altar artistically decorated with baskets of pink ranunculus, white lilies, and red roses, reflected the joyful atmosphere.

The wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mr. C. E. Kean, heralded the approach of the bridal party, the bridesmaid Miss Mayne Foster and best man Mr. John Hardin of Chillicothe, leading the way. Miss Foster wore a symphony of pink in her picture hat of pink tulle with streamers of the same, enveloping her face, and a dainty pink ruff with pearl trimmings, fastened with Turkish panels over the skirt covered in rows. She carried a bouquet of pink Columbia roses, her tulle being completed with long pink silk gloves.

The bride, accompanied by the groom, was a vision of feminine charm in her bridal gown of white tulle, bountifully draped with trimmings of pearls. Her petite style of beauty was enhanced by the graceful bridal veil of silk net finished with sat lace, being caught with orange blossoms at the crown. Her shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas completed her bridal toilet.

The impressive ring service and nuptial mass was read by Father J. E. McGuffey in the soft strains of appropriate music played on the beautiful organ.

After the church services, the bridal party and close relatives and friends were served to a wedding breakfast in the Elks club which was made festive in a color scheme of pink and white.

The bride's travelling suit for the honeymoon to Detroit, Cleveland, Niagara Falls and New York City, is a navy blue with small stylish but of the same shade and harmonizing accessories. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gage of Chillicothe and is a merchant in the employ of the B. and O. The bride is the charming and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oving Thompson of Kinney's Lane, Chillicothe and friends from Chillicothe who came to attend the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. William Gage, Mrs. Edward Nevers and son Jack, parents and sister of the groom; Mrs. Elizabeth Allen of Barton; Messrs Walter Foley, Walter Highland, Jr., Edward Corcoran, Alphonse Younger, Walter Shay, Mr. and Mrs. James Barton and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien.

Many handsome wedding gifts were received by this popular couple which will find a distinct place in their home in Chillicothe, where the best wishes of their hosts of friends follow them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cooper and son of High street have left for Omaha, Neb., to visit her relatives for several weeks.

Reading by Mrs. Tolbert; and piano solo by J. L. Weaver.

SCIOTOVILLE VOTING TODAY

Sciotoville voters today are voting on the single proposition of whether the village will surrender its corporation powers.

Leaders in the move to have the village surrender its charter and leaders of those in opposition are both claiming victory. The vote this morning was very light and was expected to continue light throughout the day as no great amount of interest was being manifested in the special election.

The village is divided into two precincts. Voters in precinct A vote at the mayor's office on Main street and voters in precinct B vote at the Shump building on Jackson street which is the dividing line of the two precincts.

Should the village vote in favor of surrendering the charter Sciotoville will then be ready for annexation to Portsmouth. The annexation question caused the matter of surrounding a charter to be brought up at this special election as the charter has to be surrendered before the village can be annexed to the city.

Gov. Coolidge To Finish His Present Job
BOSTON, June 11.—Governor Coolidge returned to his desk at the state house today to "finish his job." This was the word which came from the executive chamber in reply to the question whether he would resign in order to devote himself entirely to the Republican national campaign in the interests of Senator Harding and himself.

The governor will offer to assist in the campaign, but according to his secretary, Henry F. Loag, his activity will be conditional on his ability to do full justice to the demands of his present office. He has finished every job he has ever undertaken and intends to complete his record as governor without splitting the job in hand in order to try for another, the secretary said.

Governor Coolidge has before him several important state matters including a special session of the legislature next fall to possibly the statutes.

To one of the friends who congratulated him on his nomination for the vice presidency, the governor remarked: "I don't know about that; the governorship of Massachusetts has always been considered the second most important office in the United States."

To the many telegrams of congratulation received yesterday, scores were added today. They included messages from Harry Dwyer, manager of Senator Harding's campaign, and Charles E. Hughes.

BLACK BASS SEASON OPENS WEDNESDAY

The black bass fishing season opens Wednesday and local anglers in numbers are preparing to take advantage of the opportunity to pursue this interesting specimen of the bay tribe. Black bass is reported plentiful in the streams hereabouts and the water is in fine condition for good fishing right at this time. Some fine amusement for the lovers of the sport is assured.

Anglers should keep in mind that it is unlawful to take black bass under 11 inches in length, the law providing heavy penalties for violations and all persons catching such fish under that size should immediately turn them back into the stream.

STEELWORKER DENIES HE TRIED TO KILL WIFE; AGREES TO STAY AWAY FROM HOME

Edward Burns, steelworker, who was arrested Sunday night on a disorderly charge following a row with his wife, Mary Burns at their home, 2014 Fifth street, pleaded guilty when arraigned in Municipal court Monday and after hearing both sides in the matter Judge Small continued the case for sentence and released the defendant on his own recognizance.

Mrs. Burns told the court that the husband threatened to kill her and searched for a gun to carry out his threat but that she secured possession of the weapon first. She declared she would not live again with Burns and asked the court to keep him away from their home.

Burns declared that he had been having trouble with his wife for three years and that their frequent rows started over other men. He explained that he meant to do his wife no harm and told the court that he would stay away from home to prevent further outbreaks.

The evidence disclosed that the two men became involved in an altercation at Fourteenth and Railroad streets Saturday and shied bricks at each other, hostilities ending when Jackson was struck with a brick and knocked out.

EYES THAT ARE AGEING

Yes, the eyes grow old, in common with the rest of the body. After a person has reached middle life he becomes what an Optometrist calls a presbyope, which means that his eyes have begun to age. From then on he needs glasses to help his eyes when he reads. If he neglects to get them, his eyes are in danger of being harmed. Besides he should be sure to have his lenses changed at least every two years, as his eyes are gradually ageing, as we said. A perfect presbyope service here.

The year's loveliest photoplay. That is what the Exhibit Theatre will present tonight in the showing of Katherine Macdonald, the American Beauty in her latest picture "The Turning Point," an adaptation of Robert W. Chambers famous novel. The screen adaptation of this great novelist's gripping tale gives Miss Macdonald a role similar to her own life history. "The Turning Point" is a thrilling story of the struggle made by a financially ruined society beauty to gain a living for herself and sister and against moral ruin threatened by an evil man who desires her for her unusual charm and attractions. Diana Tennant was against all these odds and the great American Beauty triumphs the writer's famous novel. This photoplay was photographed in one of California's famous beauty spots, with a beautiful story and the screen's most beautiful star it is a delight to mind and eye. An extra added feature of tonight's program will offer the funniest man in the movies, Larry Semon, in one of his funniest comedies entitled "Passing the Buck." This comedy is one long screen from start to finish and you will surely enjoy it.

Fox squirrel's Nests. In the South, instead of living in the hollow trees, the fox squirrels build their nests in the tops of the pine and other trees, usually of Spanish moss, says the American Forestry Magazine. In these they sleep, also carrying to them the pine cones. In the hardwood forests of the North, dry leaves take the place of the Spanish moss, and a conspicuous nest is built with an entrance hole at the top.

Deserved the Cookies. Our neighbor's small son was well bred and he never asked for things to eat at our house. The other day he came into the kitchen just as I had spread the last of a batch of cookies on the table. The sight of so many and their delicious smell almost overcame his manners, for he said, "Cookies are one thing that have never disagreed with me yet." He got the two largest in the batch—Chicago Tribune.

Height of Conceit. Experience is a good teacher, but some men are conceited enough to think that they can give Experience a few pointers.

MARY PICKFORD in "Pollyanna"

Mary Pickford Plays the "Glad Girl" in "Pollyanna" at The Temple Theatre Tonight

The elixir of a child's life and her first United Artists' production. Power to straighten the viewpoint of a little Mary's recent production in this picture will be demonstrated at the Temple tonight when Mary Pickford appears in "Pollyanna."

New Chemical Kills Bed Bugs P. D. Q.

It is a new chemical compound which kills bed bugs in a few minutes. It is a new chemical compound which kills bed bugs in a few minutes. It is a new chemical compound which kills bed bugs in a few minutes.

There is nothing more convincing than Miss Pickford's characterization in this photoplay. She does not merely act the part of a little girl, she is a little girl. Her work in "Pollyanna" indicates that she has devoted untold time to the study of children, for there is no small characteristic which has escaped her.

The Mysterious Stranger. A Fish of the Shark Variety

Dave Bancroft has swapped uniforms for the first time in his big league career. He was obtained by the Giants from the Phils the other day in a trade which sent Art Fletcher to the Quaker City outfit. The acquisition of Bancroft is the first move of a series planned by McGraw in his annual attempt to buy a champion. Bancroft is a year younger than Fletcher, is hitting better and ought to add more pop generally to the Giants' lineup.

Boll Montana, ex-prize fighter now making a name for himself in movies because of his "hard" look and realistic acting in rough parts met Jack Dempsey in a movie camp the other day. Jack was winding up a few business matters before going to San Francisco to stand trial in "Herc's" lock," said Boll. Dempsey is now on trial, charged with swindling the draft. At the completion of the present trial, he must stand trial with his manager, for conspiracy to swindle the draft.

PERLEY IS IN A PET

A good many people in Portsmouth know Perley A. Baker. Perley knows Portsmouth, through many visits here and loves her for her generous gifts to the Anti-Saloon league, of which he has become one of the dominating figures.

It is to be feared, though, that a good many in Portsmouth will not love Perley any longer and will regret their liberality when he passed around the hat for Perley has failed, yes, failed the whole Republican party, nominees and platform.

That story about the committee adopting a plank ratifying the prohibition amendment and calling for the enforcement of the Volstead act and then losing it, on the way to the convention hall, with the result that it was not incorporated in the platform, doesn't go with him. He's too shrewd a bird in the political game to be caught with that sort of chaff. So Perley has repudiated the national Republican committee and all its works.

He is so mad that he threatens to go over to San Francisco, this month and get the Democrats to accept his special plank. That sounds like a joke, but it may be one with practical results. Politics is mostly a game of contraries—what one party proposes the other opposes, what one repudiates the other accepts.

Horoscope it and you will see just that. The league of nations is basically a Republican idea. The Democrats got out with it first into concrete form, altogether through force of circumstances, and now the Republican party doesn't know what it wants in that line, hard enough to say so, but it is sure what the Democrats offer is altogether sure. The Monroe doctrine is distinctly a Democratic creed and creation. Now the Republicans, claiming the league of nations transcends it, have become the most valiant and violent champions of that same Monroe doctrine. The Republicans have devised the federal bank reserve plan, and the Democrats stole it and made it into a law. It was only the threats of the interests that contribute the shekels of war to a campaign that begins early and continues late under high pressure, that kept the Chicago assembly from denouncing the reserve plan as altogether fallacious in conception and iniquitous in administration. What's the use of recounting further.

Stranger things have happened than the San Francisco convention extending the glad hand to Perley, and they are going to happen hereafter so long as party comes first in the eyes of those who run parties.

Got to hand it to handy Daugherty. He came in, for all sorts of ribaldry before the convention because of his statement, that "the nomination would be made at 2:11 in the morning by a group of tired leaders getting around a table and picking the man, and that's what happened almost to a dot."

Friends hereabouts will be glad to learn that inimitable ex-Ohiolan, J. Adam Bede, is still alive and kicking. He turned up at Chicago with the declaration that he was in favor of any of 'em, except Hi Johnson, whom he couldn't support because he was opposed to government by explosion.

The women, God bless 'em anyway, are said to have made the best speeches at the Chicago convention. That is a compliment of dubious quality, considering what the men did.

And in the presidential race at Chicago we have again somewhat illustrated the fable of the hare and the tortoise. The fellows with the long lead were all beaten.

Now they are charging the Bolsheviks with most of the rise in shoes and collars—the greater portion of the material for these formerly came from Russia, but now there is scant commerce with that country.

Coal Supply Is Limited

In speaking of the coal situation at water works plant as a result of yesterday, Service Director Gorman stated the coal conditions, but that they were to a Times man that there was no coal in the plant to touch with very moderate danger of a shut-down of the little surplus coal on hand.

The DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

LINDSEY WANTS A POSTPONE-MENT OF THE WEDDING DAY
The family awaited me with some open arms and hearts. However, my extreme timidity (if I use that word) forced them to a realization of the fact that I was not a realist. As I went into the living room to place in my own right a restraining influence over night as it were, I knew that Lindsey at least was properly prepared. Mother was merely depressed.

Father explained that it would be better in the future to let me feel as I felt, though I was at least half grown up, and that I was to have an allowance to come to a luncheon party at their home from him, direct, in the future. This house in the morning, which I was told me same on the train. But you can imagine how welcome the news was.

We went in and had dinner, and while we were still sitting over our dessert, and sort of getting acquainted all over again, in walked Cecil. He looked completely innocent, and smiled at me in surprise. "Thought you were in Boston, young lady," he said, without a blush.

"So I was," I answered, "but they did not like me there." Then every one laughed, and things seemed to be once more restored to their normal status. I do hate forces and complications so dreadfully that I believe if I were a man I'd believe in peace at any price. Thank goodness harmony reigns once more in our home.

WHO'S WHO In The Days News

W. G. McADOO

The McAdoo campaign for the presidential nomination has been under the surface within the Democratic party, but it has been successful. McAdoo has not many instructed delegates, but the number of uninstructed delegates, particularly from the south, who will be found voting for him at San Francisco will prove surprising to many. Today McAdoo is regarded as one of the two or three leading candidates for the presidential nomination.

W. G. McADOO

William G. McAdoo was born October 31, 1863, near Marietta, Ga. He was educated in the University of Tennessee and was deputy clerk of United States circuit court in Tennessee in 1882. In 1885, he was admitted to the bar, practicing in Chattanooga until 1892, when he moved to New York. He became president of the Hudson & Manhattan Railroad Company, which completed tunnels under the Hudson river, sometimes known as the "McAdoo tubes"; was delegate to the Democratic national convention in 1912; was vice chairman of the national committee in the 1912 campaign and was appointed secretary of the treasury in President Wilson's cabinet.

He was named director general of railroads after this country entered the war. He resigned from the cabinet in 1918, and a few days later from the directorship of railroads, assigning as his reasons the inadequacy of compensation in governmental work and his own need for a rest.

Mr. McAdoo's first wife, who was Sarah Hazelhurst Fleming of Charleston, died in 1912, and in 1914, in the White House, he married Eleanor Randolph Wilson, the president's daughter.

He was named director general of railroads after this country entered the war. He resigned from the cabinet in 1918, and a few days later from the directorship of railroads, assigning as his reasons the inadequacy of compensation in governmental work and his own need for a rest.

Doc Koko's Kolum

I hate to read of millionaires, because such reading seems to hypnotize me utterly.

And start me dreaming dreams. How many times I figured out, what I'd like to do if I were in that fellow's place. And had a million, too.

Of course, I'd use my fortune well. More sensibly than he. For I'd give you ten per cent at least. To worthy charity.

Another ten per cent would go to help along a few of my deserving relatives. Whose bills are overdue. And then my duty to the church. Of course a goodly share. Say twenty-five per cent or so—would be devoted there. I'd give this latter gladly, lasting just my name. Just be withheld, that none might know.

Whence this donation came, I'd only let the pastor know. He'd have to know, you see. Because my name upon the check would show it was from me.

Another twenty-five per cent would do myself and wife. The income we'd derive from that would keep us both for life. Then, after that—well, after that

BILLY WHISKER

The Indian chief, who had taken the first drink of the rapidly liquor, was now telling the effect of the poison and was becoming quarrelsome. He soon began to fight with another Indian and this led to the rest of the taking sides with one or the other, and soon all were engaged in a grand melee, flourishing their weapons in a most reckless and dangerous manner, regardless of consequences, because the fire-water had gone to their heads. Presently a young buck, half crazed under the combined influence of the fire-water and the poison, started for the door of the house and tried to better it down, forgetting all about the flag of truce, and calling upon the other Indians to follow him and scalp the pale faces, but even as their arms were upraised to strike the door they were seized with cramps and violent pains. The poison had conquered at last and soon all were lying around in every possible shape, twisting and writhing in their death struggles.

In less than an hour every Indian lay motionless and the cowboys went out to take possession of their arms.

I'd dream away and plan To spend still other ten per cents To help my fellow-men. And finally my dreaming gets A bit confused, and then I take a tumble, and my feet Tangle solid earth again; And common sense assures me, as It stamps me with a jerk, I've wasted time enough to do A dollar's worth of work.

True Jenkins and his best girl were motoring a considerable distance, and the margin of time was very short.

With about twelve miles to go, he made defiance to all police traps and, turning to the girl of his heart, exclaimed, "We're going at fifty miles an hour. Are you brave, dear?" The girl, as she swallowed a quantity of dust, replied with emotion: "Yes, dear; I'm full of grit!"

What Concerned Father The minister was shocked to see the young lad with a fishing outfit on Sunday. "My dear lad, what will your father say about your fishing on the Sabbath?" "Well, last time he said: 'Where the thunder's your fish?'" replied the youngster.

Long and Short of It "I wonder why it takes pay day so long to come around?" "It only seems long when you're short, and the shorter you are the longer it seems."

He Rode Free

The rear platform of the car was crowded with poor business men in starveling collars and rich laborers in overalls. There would be nothing unusual in that if one of the overalled party had not given the crowd a lesson in thrift.

"See, I've got a dime," he told the conductor. The conductor nodded. "I'll pitch it. Heads you get the dime or tails I ride for nothing."

The conductor nodded again and the coin tumbled the air. "Tails," announced the overalled one triumphantly, and he took his place with the rest of the crowd.

Seeing Cuba

"So you have just returned from Cuba?" "Yes," replied the bibulous American.

"Did you about it?" "You'll have to ask somebody else." "Why not?" "I parked my left foot on a brass rail and my left elbow on a mahogany counter as soon as I got there. To the best of my knowledge I kept that attitude until my stomach sailed."

Their Excuses

The excuses offered by school boys are often laughable, perhaps none more so than those of two pupils of a country school, for being late. Asked why he didn't come when he heard the bell, one boy said: "Please, sir, I was dreaming I was going to California, and I thought the school bell was the steamboat I was going on."

"You did, eh?" said the teacher. "And now, sir, (turning to the second boy), what have you to say for yourself?" "Please, sir, I was just waiting to see 'from off,' stammered the other.

New-York - Day - By - Day

BY O. C. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, June 15—"I pick 'em young, treat 'em tough and tell 'em nothing." This was the philosophy of a Broadwayite of many years at a Long Island divorce trial. He was frankly admitting some of his gay excesses in the land of all night clubs. He seemed quite proud of his liaisons and even that he had a case full of photographs for reporters—but more were printed and the account of the divorce was not even dignified by his name.

RUSSIAN BLOUSE FOR WEAR WITH SEPARATE SKIRTS

Many women have become so attached to overblouses that they have filled their summer wardrobes with pretty smocks. Russian blouses and blouses of different fabrics which they wear over dainty skirts of silk or cotton. Here is a smart blouse made on the Russian lines. It is fashioned of a heavy quality of white georgette and is embellished in an intricate design in a pretty shade of blue.

Rising In The World "AND," said Mr. O'Rourke, thoughtfully, "no one can say that my brother Tom has not advanced. He began at the foot, but he has worked up to the head in a very short time."

"How's that?" asked his friend. "Well, he was a choreographer at first, but he gave it up in a few months and became a barber. I got off here. Good morning."—London Tit-Bits.

Why He Didn't An artist was showing a young woman over his studio. After she had critically examined all the pictures she remarked: "I notice several sunsets among your works, but not a single sunrise. How's that?"

The artist, who was rather noted for his Holmanian habits, blushed a little at the question, and then stammered: "You see, it's this way. To tell the truth, the reason I've never painted a sunrise is because I'm never up at that time."

Laid Color on Thickly. There were periods when even men rouged. In the eighteenth century little attempt was made to imitate nature's coloring. The ladies "laid it on thick" in round red spots, and seemed to apply it as they did patches, to obtain a supposed decorative effect, and to simulate the blush of nature. The red and white they used, unlike the modern cosmetics, were actually poisonous, and there is record of more than one lady of quality who died from the effects of white lead.

He is a man who has made money in some mysterious way, but the rest of the story is a mystery. He is a man who has made money in some mysterious way, but the rest of the story is a mystery.

They never seem to realize their sole attraction is money. It is painful to see them come dishing out independent from the manure and their bags, their heads adorned with a red carnation. At some cafe a young thing is waiting to have her breakfast purchased. She will change parts of her dress for suit. And later she will find the real boy of her affection, picked with a brand new $100 bill, taken from her purse.

This little trick she effects at once. It would be so embarrassing to know. Every ten years a new crop of the old spenders arrive on Broadway. Then they pass out of the Broadway life and may be glimpsed in the windows of the haberdasherie shops, in fine gowns and coats of gold.

The most distinguished men to be seen in New York may be found in night gowns in the cheap hotel. They passed them through the door of the signs of former affluence. They are not a dissipated lot, rather, and are forceful appearing. The employment agencies say that this kind of work is selected by men who do not care to meet the friends of yesterday. The pay is fair and the work all night and sleep all day and appear in a most official manner.

The hopeful soul who rushes to Ellis Island out of these early summer days, expecting to carry off $25 or $5000 harvest hands for the Kansas wheat crop is doomed to disaster. The alien arrival is not to be kept off in this wholesale fashion by popular, however alluring, or agreeable, however suppliant from the alien starved wheat growers of the West. The immigrant has been subjected to too long a wait. Through the door to his job waiting for him either in New York or Podunk and he goes straight to it.

Another new way of defeating prohibition is found in private homes in the Tenderloin district. They are being turned into restaurants but signs are hung out. They have a little atmosphere of quiet chatter, and boarding houses. Only those who are known personally by the manager may enter. As the wine is red and the cocktails fair they have a tendency in establishing a steady and profitable clientele from the start. One may not even enter by a letter or recommendation from a patron. A personal introduction and then an investigation by the management form the only operands.

OHIO DEMOCRATS OPEN BIG DRIVE TO INSURE COX'S NOMINATION AT FRISCO

COX HOLDS WHIP HAND AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION THRU HARDING'S SELECTION

COLUMBUS, O., June 15.—Now that in Ohio has been chosen the standard bearer of the Republican party, the Democrats are rebuilding their efforts to obtain another honor for the Buckeye state by having Governor James M. Cox selected by the San Francisco convention as the one to carry the standard for their party.

No sooner had Senator Harding's nomination been assured than former Governor James E. Campbell, an Ohio delegate at large to the Democratic national convention, began preparations of a circular letter to all Democratic delegates setting forth by Governor Cox should be nominated at the San Francisco convention.

Governor James M. Cox can carry Ohio. What other candidate can match the certainty with even a probability, he declares.

Ohio Democrats are convinced that the nomination of Senator Harding by the Republicans has placed Governor Cox in a strategical position from which it will be hard for any other candidate to dislodge him.

NOTED AMERICAN BANKER RETURNS FROM FAR EAST

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip and daughter, Narcisse.

This photo of Frank A. Vanderlip and his family was taken recently at San Francisco, when Vanderlip, one of the country's leading bankers and financiers, returned from attending financial conferences in the far east in the interest of the American International corporation, formed to handle foreign loans. Vanderlip made a number of speeches in Japan.

HELD FOR MURDER OF HUSBAND

LOUISVILLE, KY., June 15.—Arrest last night of Mrs. Rosa Adcock, charged with the murder of her husband, James Adcock, reopened circumstances surrounding the shooting of Adcock here on May 31, after which the coroner's jury held that he had committed suicide.

Adcock, a 10-year-old girl, the police arrested Mrs. Grace Joffrey, her sister, and Newton Sloan, her father, charged with being accessories.

The police in arresting the trio acted after a careful investigation, which they said, included testimony by neighbors that Mrs. Adcock shot her husband during a quarrel. It also was said, the police declared, that Sloan struck Adcock with his fist and then threw stones at him when he ran from the Adcock home after being shot.

DO NOT EXPECT JOHNSON OR BORAH TO BOLT

CHICAGO, June 15.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, is leading in the referendum vote which is being taken among the members of the committee of 48 as a suitable candidate for the presidential nomination, according to statements at the party headquarters last night. Leaders said they count upon the support of the La Follette Republicans, farmers, labor and non-partisan league membership. They do not anticipate that Senator Johnson or Senator Borah will bolt the Republican party, they said.

IMPORTANT RESOLUTIONS UP BEFORE MEMBERS OF FEDERATION OF LABOR

MONTREAL, June 15.—(Resolutions demanding government ownership and Democratic control of railroads, lifting of the blockade against Russia, recognition of the Russian Soviet government, release of "political prisoners," and reclassification of government civil service employees, were up for discussion today before the members of the American Federation of Labor. The committee on resolutions announced it probably would complete its reports on these proposals before the session closed.

The railroad resolution, supported by the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen, International Switchmen's Union, Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, and a number of other organizations, demands repeal of the transportation act of 1920, and enactment of legislation providing for "government ownership and Democratic operation of the railroads system and necessary inland waterways."

This is necessary, the resolution declares, in order to provide "more adequate and cheaper transportation and to eliminate the sinister influence of railroad corporations from our national life."

The special committee of the national committee for organizing iron and steel workers announced today that it had presented a request to the executive council to bring the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers back into the steel industry organizing movement. The council will now have the matter under consideration. James G. Byrne, now in charge of the campaign, has offered his resignation, but the committee has refused to consider it at this time.

Hirmingham and Los Angeles are the only announced candidates for the convention next year, but several other cities are expected to enter the contest this week.

Nothing To Reassure The Farmers

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Benjamin C. Marsh, secretary of the farmers' national council who clashed with members of the resolutions committee of the Republican national convention last week when he attacked the transportation act as "un-American," issued a statement here today declaring that "the section of the Republican platform on agriculture does not contain a single declaration to reassure the farmers of America."

The Republican platform, Marsh said, "recognizes several existing evils in farming conditions, but does not pledge action to justify them."

"The platform naturally endorses the transportation act and legislation to turn the people's ships over to the British and American shipping interests," Marsh added. "These two measures jointly will spell financial loss and perhaps disaster for hundreds of thousands of farmers."

Mexican President Satisfied With Senator Harding

MEXICO CITY, June 14.—Adolfo de la Huerta, provisional president, declared at a dinner to newspaper men tonight that he considered Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for the presidency of the United States a "good friend of Mexico."

During the course of his address the provisional president said that he opposed capital punishment.

Anti-Cat Crusade Is Planned By New York City

NEW YORK, June 15.—Plans to rid this city of thousands of cats, forced into homelessness by the summer absence of their owners, were announced today by the department of health, which will be aided in the task by the pretention of cruelty to animals.

The department, it also was announced, will conduct a crusade to exterminate cats, particularly from the tenement blocks, as a preventive against bubonic plague.

The holds on all incoming ships will be fumigated with cyanide gas, it was said.

Mrs. Eva Gleason, who states she is the widow of a late wealthy Chicago manufacturer, when held under bail accused of having stolen $1,000 worth of jewelry during a card party at Mrs. Chester Curry's home in New York threatened to expose "a gambling scandal among the west side smart set."

She is said to have returned the jewels stolen at the McCarty home.

PARIS, June 15.—Italy's claims on reparations to be paid by the central empire, including pensions, has been fixed at 60,000,000,000 lire, (nearly about $12,120,000,000), according to Rome dispatch to newspapers here.

TO MERGE BIG STEEL PLANTS

Announcement has been received here through J. D. Merriam & Company, of Wheeling, dealers in investment securities, that the bests upon which the LaSalle Iron Works, Wheeling Steel & Iron Company and the Whitaker-Glossner Company, will be merged has been practically determined. This combination will have an authorized capitalization of $100,000 and be incorporated under the laws of Delaware as the Wheeling Steel Corporation.

This is the most ambitious industrial project ever undertaken in the Wheeling district and will be notable in that probably not more than 25 per cent of the appraised value of assets to be absorbed will be capitalized, the remainder being carried as surplus. The annual output capacity will be 1,000,000 tons.

At the Whitaker-Glossner plant Tuesday it was stated that a merger to this effect has been on for some time, but that no details of it have been received here as it is still in the making.

"It will have no material effect on the local plant, which will be operated upon its present successful basis," General Manager A. J. McFarland said Tuesday.

SCIOTOVILLE VOTING TODAY

May Surrender Its Charter

Sciotoville voters today are voting on the single proposition of whether the village will surrender its corporate powers.

Leaders in the move to have the village surrender its charter and become a part of the city of Portsmouth are both confident of victory. The vote this morning was very light and was expected to remain light throughout the day as no great amount of interest was being manifested in the special election.

The village is divided into two precincts. Voters in precinct A vote at the Rhung building on Jackson street which is the dividing line of the two precincts.

Should the village vote in favor of surrendering the charter Sciotoville will then be ready for annexation to Portsmouth. The annexation question caused the matter of surrounding a charter to be brought up at this special election as the charter has to be surrendered before the village can be annexed to the city.

For this reason they ask that all books now out of the library shall be returned before the last of June, no matter how long or how short a time they have been out. This is necessary in order that we may start with a clean slate when library is reopened, with no fines coming as will be the case if books are not returned during these two weeks.
